Introduction

Love, relations and marriage in general are very sensitive and personal issues for all human beings. A happy love life is very essential for leading a peaceful and successful life. This is for sure the most desired feeling for every one of us. But, a look at the world around us reveals that not all individuals are leading a happy and peaceful love life and not holding hands with their soul mates. However, astrologers across the world claim that astrology can do the needful in this field.

It has been claimed that love astrology and marriage astrology unveil the truth about one's love life and predicts about the marital life. It helps an individual understand himself, his heart, his desires and his love mate. Based on the intended couple's astrology signs, one can very easily find details of their love life. The positions of the astrology planets in the different signs in case of two different persons contribute a lot to the harmoniousness of their compatibility. The compatibility level also varies depending on the type of the relationships that two persons share.

Scorpio Natives share the most harmonious relationships with the Pisces people in matters of love and marriage.

Love, Marriage and Compatibility

It is very necessary to check the marriage compatibility between the marriage partners. A marriage compatibility test on the basis of marriage astrology principles can give you an idea about the strength of the bond between the partners and the chances of their leading a happy and peaceful marital life. For a free marriage compatibility test you can try MB Marriage Compatibility Software (<http://mb-free-marriage-compatibility.mysticboard.com/>).

Horoscope match making is one of the most crucial application of the science of astrology in India. Astrologers have to say that the position of the planets namely - the Sun and the Moon have more influence than that of the Others in the galaxy, compared to the birth coordinates of the two individuals. Apart from these two planets, the celestial bodies that constitute the solar system are also important along with the houses they form. But apart from the planets and the planetary positions, another major factor that needs to be considered is the Vedic ascendants of both the person.

The Vedic ascendant or the lagna plays an important role in portraying the image of an individual - his characteristic traits, his personality, his habits and many others. On comparing the ascendant of both the partners, the astrologers generally come to the conclusion that if the partners share the same ascendant then the chances of having an intimate relationship are more. Things do not end out there. The position of the Moon in the lady's chart and that of the Sun in the man's chart are also taken into consideration.

Romantic Compatibility

If you are not thinking of marriage right now, and if you want to be happy with a romance partner, you can try MB Romantic Compatibility Software (<http://mb-free-romantic-compatibility.mysticboard.com/>)

Marriage Compatibility Tests

Marriage compatibility tests are strongly suggested by the astrologers. Apart from determining the compatibility level, marriage compatibility tests also reveal certain other vital aspects. Love compatibility tests or marriage compatibility astrology can provide answers to the following questions:

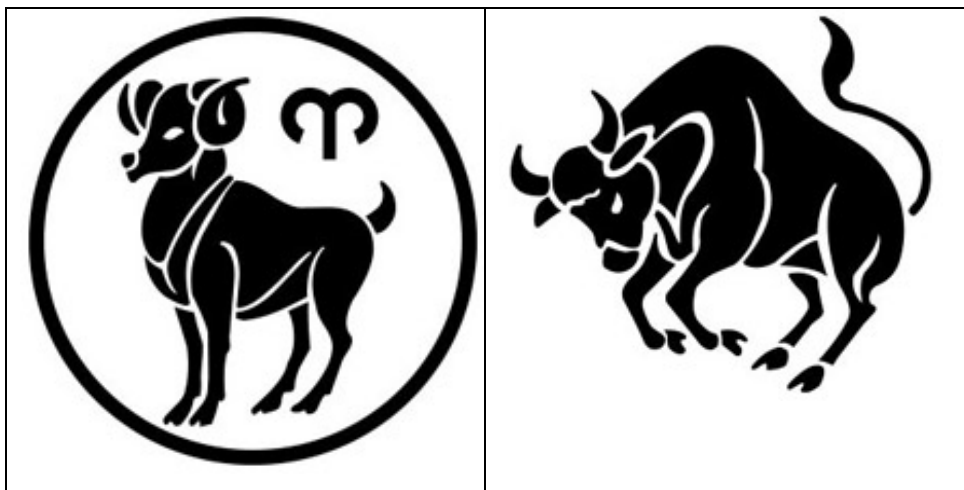

1. Whether a person is unlucky in love?
2. When will a person get married?
3. Are the partners compatible?
4. Are they sexually compatible?
5. When will the soul mate meet?
6. The magic mantra to make one fall in love with you.
7. How many relationships will a person have in life?

Compatibility In Other Relationships

Love and marriage do not form the entirety of relationships. There are innumerable types of relationships that almost every individual has in his/her life.
