Introduction

Individuals are curious, especially with respect to their attitudes and personality traits. Since both attitude and personality of a person are much influenced by the socio-economic conditions in which a person grows up, and since, the socio-familial conditions vary from person to person, the attitudes and personality traits are unique for each individual. Studies from a completely different aspect with a deviant dimension reveals that the astrological and numerological associations of people influence them a lot in determining their attitude and personality types.

Importance And Significance Of Attitude & Personality

Keeping in mind the lifestyle people live today, one cannot but be aware of his/her goal – no matter if it is dreamed and resolved by him/herself or determined by parents or associated guardians. A child grows up keeping in mind his goals and perspectives. Goals and attitude are very closely related to each other. The role of attitude in achieving goals cannot be ignored. Ambitiousness without a positive attitude is nothing but a shameless projection of extraordinary and exemplary levels of stupidity.

To achieve your goal or materialize your dreams and aspirations, you need to work. Since you are no god or no super-human being, you are sure to fall victim to weariness. Your attitude and personality is determined by how you combat these mundane problems. You ought to be careful about your attitudes and approaches in dealing

“Positive Attitude? What Exactly Do You Mean?”

The positive attitude always says, “I can” and “I will”; it never says, “I’ll see if I can make it.” And when failure strikes, the positive attitude has a ‘fall back’ of ‘pull back’ position that will inspire more powerful and more oriented ventures. The proud possessor of a positive attitude and formidable personality may take time to reach the ripe time or try a different route. But the fall back position is never negative; it always comes as a reassessment, after having studied the failure to see if it offers a lesson. It is a common saying that, ‘Failure is the pillar of Success! But, you should have the sense to understand that failures are ‘pillars of success’ and not a matter of ‘shame’ only when you ultimately manage to achieve success. That ultimate success is the roof over the pillars, making a complete mansion and indicating a history of success in the making. Without that ultimate success, your ‘pillars of success’ render you roofless and shelterless.

Jeck Jackson, director of operations, PUSH, believes that a right attitude will help you achieve any given goal. No matter how adverse your circumstances may be, how you react is up to you. Your attitude always speaks. Even in worst situations, be it the high road or the by lanes, the journey should not be abandoned.

Success through a positive mental attitude is possible in two ways:

1. You motivate by example.
2. You can attract happiness.

A Story Of Positive Attitude

Once, a sculptor was reputed for his artistic sculptures that reflected the richness and depth of Indian culture with absolute precision and awe-inspiring liveliness. He was asked the trick in bringing out the Indianness in the sculptures that was characterized by uncompromising perfection. He replied that he simply chops off everything that does not seem to be Indian. And, he is very confident about his way of perceiving and understanding Indianness.
