Introduction

The lines of the hand foretell a lot about our future and fortune. Palmistry has also made a distinct contribution as far as travels and accidents are concerned. There are two distinct ways of telling travels and voyages from the hands. One is in the form of heavy distinct lines on the face of the Mount of Luna; the other from the little hair-lines that leave the line of life but travel on with it.

Travel Lines On The Palm

This indication is similar to that of the life line dividing in the hand: if one branch goes around Venus, the other proceeding to the base of the Mount of Luna, it foretells that the subject will make some great change from his native land to another.

that the journeys told the line of life are far than the lines on relate to the travels of the sometimes noted lines extend form and rise into the These are travel the lines of Luna, important.

It therefore follows by the change in more important Luna, which minor changes or subject. It is that the long the first bracelet mount of Luna. lines similar to but much more

The interpretations of the travel lines on your palm are given below. Try to find if there is any possibility of you traveling in the near future. If you want an accurate study of your palm lines and know what they signify, you can try MB Palmistry (<http://www.mysticboard.com/mb-free-palmistry>) and MB Astro Palmistry Software (<http://www.mysticboard.com/mb-free-astro-palmistry>).

When the line of fate shows a considerable and beneficial change at the same point, then these lines are prosperous and fortunate. When the line of fate, however, does not show any advantage gained at the same point, then the change will not affect the subject greatly in worldly matters.

Significance Of Travel Lines

The following points need to be noticed, for the purpose of determining travels and voyages from the line of the hands.

1. When the journey line will end with a small cross, the journey will end in disappointment.
2. When the travel line ends in a square, it denotes danger from the journey, but the subject will be protected.
3. When the line ends with an island, no matter how small, the journey will end with a loss.
4. On the Mount of Luna, the ascendant lines from the first bracelet are the most beneficial.

5. When the line crosses the hand and enters the mount of Jupiter, great position and power will be attained by the subject and the traveling too will be a long one.

6. When the travel line runs into the mount of the Saturn, some fatality will govern the entire journey.

7. When it runs to the Mount of Sun, the journey promises riches and fame and is also very favorable.

8. When it reaches the Mount of Mercury, sudden and unexpected wealth will arise from it.

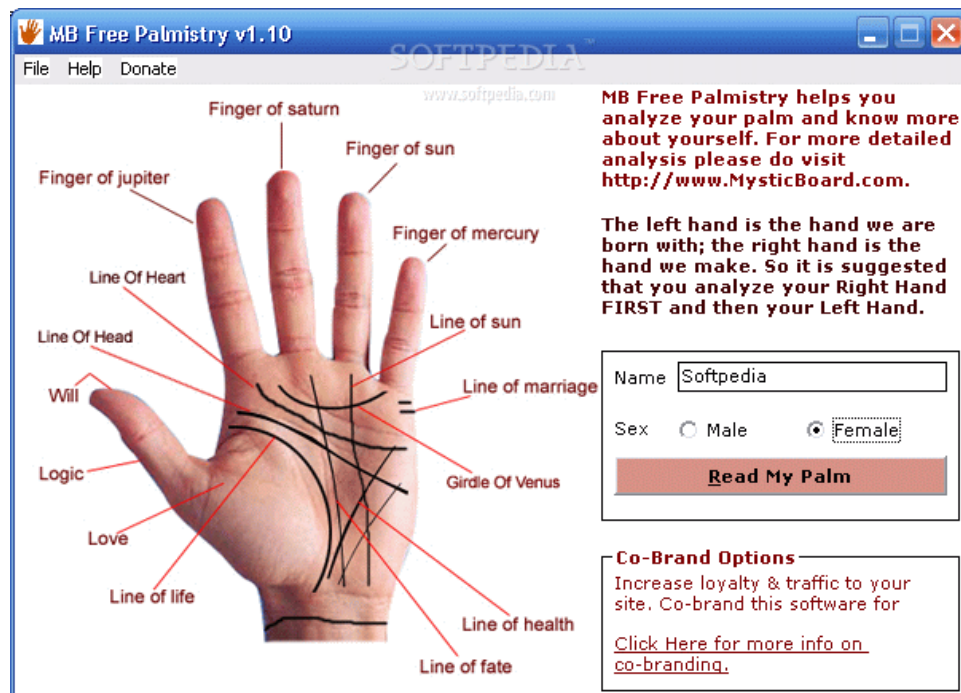

9. If the travel line runs into the head line and causes a spot, island or a break, it foretells some danger to the head or some malady arising from such a journey.

10. Any square or a line on the travel line, foretells danger, accident and misfortune, but the subject will be protected from all sorts of accidents.

Conclusion

To the lines of the head, the same rules will be applicable, with the difference that the danger will be direct to the head itself. But if the accident line cuts or breaks the head line, it denotes serious shock or injury to the brain.
