Introduction

The Zodiacal Virgo

The Virgins are famous for their intelligence, precision and an insistence on 'doing it right'. There is an emphasis on techniques, which makes the Virgo's approach to life almost chilling. Once it has even been noted by one of the astrologers, that in their sex lives too the Virgos try to do everything clinically perfect. This characteristic of the virgin - to do everything in an orderly manner, is noted in every aspect of their lives.

Let us now explore the nature and character types of the Virgo people. If your sun sign is Virgo, you are sure to find the descriptions below matching with your nature and character traits. However, it has to be kept in mind these characteristics and personality traits are applicable for the Virgo people in general. ## General Character

With the virgin's energy and foresightedness comes a concentration for the details. Even the minor and the less significant things of a planned event are taken into account by the Virgos. As a result, Virgos move on very smoothly and happily through the life's path chosen by them. At times it is very much possible that the Virgos become so very obsessed with the minute details of life that they tend to overlook the broader picture and the wider aspects of life. But in most cases the cool headed and methodical virgins tend to control their obsessive personality by relaxing occasionally and by prioritizing their works.

Virgo Life Style

Virgos often lead a very happy, blissful and successful life. They can live with equal ease in both the cities and as well as the suburbs. Mess and muddle is something which the virgins cannot tolerate at any cost. They love to live systematically and work in a planned and routine manner. If they are allowed to lead such a life, then not only do they themselves remain happy, but they make others around them happy as well.

Virgo

Sexuality & Emotions

Pure Virgos find it almost impossible to let themselves be carried away fully by emotions. They always try to keep a tight control over their emotions. This is not because of the fact that they lack strong feelings. But they do so out of an unknown fear. They feel that if they let their emotional guard go down, and then the unwanted and unpredictable happenings may hamper their life style. In a long term relationship, pure Virgo people are rarely happy. But if they hit upon the right partner, then they prove to be the best partner. Virgos are loyal, faithful and supportive partners.

Career / Profession

Virgos are very practical minded and they always set realistic goals for themselves, which are achievable. As colleagues, they are very loyal. At the workplace, they are serious workers. Being task-oriented and organized are the keywords of the virgin. They will often get things done by others and then take the credit for the whole work done. Virgo's perfectionism in all the work they do can very often lead to ill health and nervous breakdown. The Virgos love to be the think-tanks, the problem solvers and the organizers of any responsible work.

Conclusion

If what you have read above does not describe you, recheck your zodiac sign. There is a high possibility that you are not a Virgo, rather not a pure Virgo. Such chances are the highest if you were born at early hours of 23rd August or late hours of 22nd September. In that case you were most probably born on the cusps of two zodiac signs. To clear your confusion you can try MB Cusp Astrology Software. Visit <http://mb-free-cusp-astrology.mysticboard.com> to know about this astrology tool in detail.
